Los Altos Police Department

CRIME ALERT

ATTEMPTED SEXUAL ASSAULT

On Saturday October 30, 2004 at 3:30am the Los Altos Police Department responded to an attempted sexual assault that occurred in a residence located on N. Clark Ave. The victim, a female juvenile, was asleep in bed when the offense occurred. She was awakened by the suspect who was crouching over her. The victim started screaming and the suspect fled from the residence. The victim's parents immediately called the police after determining what had occurred. Officers from Los Altos, Mountain View and Palo Alto searched the area with canines but the suspect was not located.

The suspect is described as a male of unknown race, approximately 6' tall, and has short dark hair. The suspect was wearing dark clothing at the time of the assault. No vehicles were seen leaving the area.

The Los Altos Police Department would like to remind the members of our community to keep their doors and windows locked at night and when not at home.

If you saw anything suspicious that may relate to this incident, please call the Los Altos Police Department at 650-903-6348. For information on home security Please contact Community Service Officer Rod Sayre at 650-947-2776. Always call 911 in the event you witness suspicious activity or need emergency assistance.

Do you know this person? Phone the Los Altos Police Department TIP line toll free at 866-570-8211

COMMUNITY MEETING NOTIFICATION

Los Altos Police Chief Don Johnson and Mountain View Police Chief Scott Vermeer will be hosting a community informational meeting on Monday, November 8 from 6:30—8:30 pm at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 1075 El Monte Avenue, Mountain View. The presentation is open to the community and will include information about the recent incidents in Los Altos and Mountain View as well as crime prevention tips for keeping you and your home safe.